FOR EXTRA RALLY EXPENSES

Henry Sandstrom

The Officers, Board, and entire membership sincerely thank these donors for their generosity.

Norma Redd . . .

Norma Redd, wife of Don Redd of LaRue, Ohio passed away on April 11, 2011. Norma was always soft spoken and had a ready smile for everyone. She enjoyed going to the rallies and visiting with everyone. What she never told us was that she was very talented. She was active in their church and shared being organist. Norma was Director of the Chancel and Youth Choir. Norma also had a beautiful soprano voice.

We will all miss Norma and her smiling face.

Todd Augsberger . . .

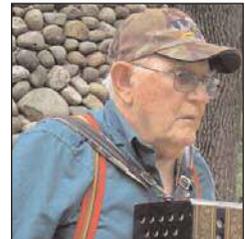

Todd R. Augsburger passed away May 7, 2011 at the age of 53 after a short battle with ALS. He was an active member of MBSI, AMICA, COAA, and the Musical Box Society of Great Britain. Todd had an extensive collection of organettes, owned and operated the Organette House in Kenton, Ohio and authored "Roller Organs: The Autophone Company's 'Ingenious Mechanism'." He attended many local meetings with his monkey organ and gave numerous workshops on organettes. Todd could always be seen at Union, Illinois, and never missed a Stanton's auction.

Dick Bogart . . .

Richard (Dick) Bogart of Corry, PA died on March 28, 2011. He is survived by Alice, his wife of 62 years. In their many years together, they traveled extensively in all of the lower 48 states. They attended many COAA, MBSI and ABOA organ rallies.

Dick was an important part of the annual Organ Grinders Weekend in Franklin, PA in support of the DeBence Antique Music World Museum. He was delighted to play his Tanzabar accordion for curious onlookers and show them how it worked. He also had many stories to share.

Dick was community minded. He was a former captain of the Elgin Fire Police, a member of the Erie County Fire Police Association, the Good Sam Club and the Corry Historical Society.

Other members of Dick's family are also interested in mechanical music and frequently came to rallies.

Andy Bogart . . .

Dick and Alice's son, Andy Bogart, loved to crank their Raffin organ. He always enjoyed performing at the organ grinder concerts at our COAA rallies at Knoebels Amusement Park. We are sad to report that Andy passed away in December of 2010.

We'll miss both Dick and Andy.
